A La Carte Menu At the heart of our menu is a wood burning oven; we only use sustainable wood from the English countryside giving the most amazing flavour and aromas to our food. House Classics We follow traditional methods when it comes to making our hand stretched pizza dough and when baked in our wood burning oven creates a perfect crust.

A la carte, a French loan phrase meaning "According to the menu" designates a menu where items are listed and priced separately, usually with a greater amount of choice than a fixed price menu. The advantages of the À la carte menu really do depend on the type of restaurant that is offering one. The clear advantage is choice.

A La Carte Menu. Dinner at the Dryburgh is served daily from a delicious à la carte menu. Dining at the Dryburgh Abbey Hotel is all about indulging in delicious food and fine wine. This emphasis is very much on high quality, fresh seasonal produce with many items sourced locally (some from within yards in the Kitchen Garden). These are used to provide dishes which capture a traditional style of cooking and love for Scottish Cuisine.
