In order to make Jesus your Lord, you must be a child of God (one who has called on the name of the Lord Jesus Christ to save you from your sins (Romans 10:13). As a child of God, you not only acknowledge that Jesus is Lord but lovingly submit to His authority over your life (Ephesians 5:24). You can make Jesus Lord of your life by growing in Christian maturity.

How can I make Jesus my Lord? - CompellingTruth.org

Answer: The key is understanding that Jesus is already Lord of your life. We do not make Jesus Lord. Jesus is Lord. What we are supposed to do is submit to His lordship. Another word for our response to Jesus' lordship is "submission." To submit is to yield to the will and control of another, and, with reference to Christians, it is yielding to the will and control of Jesus Christ.

Making Jesus Lord of Our Emotions Pull quote: "Our emotional obsessions become idols diverting mind and strength from God's service." Emotions are valuable. They are part of the way God created us. But we should control our emotions, not be ruled by them. The gospel promises redemption for our emotional life as for other parts [1]

Making Jesus Lord of Our Emotions - South Houston Bible ...

Saying, "Jesus is Lord," became a way of declaring Jesus' deity. It began with Thomas' exclamation when Jesus appeared to the disciples after His resurrection: "Thomas said to him, 'My Lord and my God'" (John 20:28). From then on, the apostles' message was that Jesus is Lord, meaning "Jesus is God."
