All the good works

Save the Children

is doing in Liberia

started in 1991,

with an emergency

program focusing on the immediate needs of children

affected by the civil war which

erupted in 1989.

Initially, the Liberia

Country Program's

focus was on community health,
social welfare and
protection in and around the capital, Monrovia, and later
gradually extended
to other areas
across the country.
