Hygge for the Holidays - Bob's - Bob's - Bob's Blog

"With the pandemic still in our midst, the hustle and bustle of the holiday season looks different from years past. Holiday parties have come to a halt, shopping malls are quiet, most visits with Santa are virtual, and many holiday traditions we know and love will wait to resume until next year. With this new situation that the pandemic brings, we are learning to embrace a different type of ...

Puzzles. Every holiday, we would set up a card table for a large puzzle. Anyone could float in and out of the puzzle corner to work on it, take a beat from the conversations and have some quiet time, or work together to find that tiny cardinal sitting on the mailbox. Finishing a puzzle together also creates a warm sense of group accomplishment.
