Over the past few decades there has been a revolution in terms of who controls knowledge and information. This rapid change has imperiled the way we think. Without pausing to consider the cost, the world has rushed to embrace the products and services of four titanic corporations. We shop with Amazon; socialize on Facebook; turn to Apple for entertainment; and rely on Google for information. These firms sell their laid waste to privacy.

They have produced an unstable and narrow culture of misinformation, and put us on a path to a world without private
contemplation,
autonomous thought, or
solitary introspection—a world without mind. In order to restore our inner lives, we must
