Tom spies on the seduction when it takes place, and is surprised to hear Melissa's dissatisfaction with him isn't as divorce-bound as it had seemed. I'm not really clear why Melissa's position softens, or why the couple so readily improve towards each other once Tom admits really wanting to watch her.

This omnibus is a collection of stories tied together by the main character Violet. She begins life as a computer program named Eve. Once she is sentient, she becomes a 'person' with a body, and all of the emotions and problems of a human. In the first story Violet is humanized when the author has her eat and enjoy bacon.
