What are the Problems of Translation and its Solution. By medtrans September 6, 2018 General. Translation isn ' t a natural process, so any languages that need to be translated should be undertaken by experienced translators who know both the source and targeted languages well. One of the common challenges in translation is having a deep understanding of not just the language but also the culture of the two languages that need to be translated.

TRANSLATING A NOVEL: PROBLEMS AND SOLUTIONS (A HOLISTICALLY CRITIQUE ON NOVEL TRANSLATION)

Translating a novel is more difficult than translating academic texts. Novel translators (Genetic factor) usually have problems in translating figurative languages (metaphors, similes, personifications, etc.) and idiomatic expressions because they should reproduce in the target language (TL) the closest natural equivalence of the source language (ST) message, firstly in terms of meaning and secondly in ...
